

REGISTRATION REGULATIONS.

Those persons who must register before they will be permitted to vote at the coming election should not forget that October 17 and 31 are the days.

The rules for registration are that all new residents, who are entitled under the law to vote, shall register before they can vote. All persons who registered for the special bond election, but who were not registered previous to that registration, will have to register again.

All persons who were not registered last fall for the presidential election will have to register this fall to be allowed to vote.

Persons who registered last fall, but have since moved to another district, may on any day before election day secure a transfer certificate and have their names entered on the registration list where they now reside.

Every citizen of the United States (and if of foreign birth, he must have been naturalized ninety days before the election) who has lived in the state for a period of one year, four months in the county and sixty days in the city, is entitled to register and vote.

The names of the registrars and the places of registration are as follows:

General W. R. White, ex-Councilman Jim Stewart, ex-Councilman Martin Mulvey, ex-Councilman John Wiscomb, ex-Councilman Alex Robertson, ex-City Treasurer Harry Duke, ex-Candidate for Any Old Job Sanpete Armstrong and a multitude of other Exs too extensive to list, but guaranteed a fine assortment. Will be sold cheap as they must be cleared out to make room for new goods.

All of the above named patriots have seen service, been fed at the public crib, and were retired from duty for the good of the service.

Goods sold to lowest bidder and at buyer's risk.

Reason for selling, retiring from business.

STRONG ON ADVERTISING.

The following is stolen from the paper that stole it from the paper that stole it first. It appears that our friends, the Japs, are about as strong on advertising as we are. Listen to this from a dry goods store in Tokio: "Our wrapping paper is as strong as the hide of an elephant. Goods forwarded with the speed of a cannon ball. Our silks and satins are as soft as the cheeks of a pretty woman, and

THE REAL REASONS WHY THE "AMERICAN" PARTY WAS STARTED AND IS CARRIED ALONG.

1. Tom Kearns wanted to be re-elected Senator against the wishes of the people and President Smith of the Mormon church refused to help him, turned a deaf ear to Tom's pleading and Tom's threats had no effect whatever on Mr. Smith except to make him more determined not to help Tom and not to get into politics.
2. President Joseph F. Smith of the Mormon church prevented ex-Senator Cannon from "skinning" the church out of $250,000 on the church's issue of bonds.
3. Ex-Senators Kearns and Cannon want revenge. That's all.

AUCTION.

as beautiful as the rainbow. Our parcels are packed with as much care as a young married woman takes of her husband."

NAUVOO LEGION.

The next monthly meeting of the association of the Nauvoo Legion will be held Monday evening, October 16th, in the bishop's office, tithing yard, at 8 o'clock. A full attendance of both ladies and gentlemen is requested, as the new badges have to be adopted for the use of the association, besides several other propositions to further increase of membership.
